I refer to our show cause letter number HR/CDL/029/2019 dated 24th April 2019 regarding findings of an internal fraud investigation, your response to the same letter dated 29th April 2019, our second show cause letter number HR/CDL/043/2019 dated 21st May 2019 regarding transactions and vouchers approved by you and your response to the same letter dated 26th May 2019.

We regret to note that despite the two opportunities given to you to respond, you have failed to reasonably justify your actions with regards to approving transactions and signing vouchers. The explanations you provided in your response letters are unreasonable and cannot be considered as a justification for your actions. As the manager of the unit, you have a higher responsibility in ensuring that funds transferred from Bank's internal accounts were made on the basis of necessary approvals and supporting documents. It is your duty to ensure that the staff working with you performed their responsibilities within the boundaries of the documented procedures of the Bank. Your failure to scrutinize/ verify the transactions has contributed to misappropriation of Bank's funds by another staff, which could have been identified sooner and you been vigilant in performing your duties.

In the absence of any reasonable justification or supporting documents, your negligence is considered as gross neglect of duty which is serious/gross Misconduct and breach of section 3.1(4) of the Bank's Disciplinary and Grievance Procedure. As such in line with section 23 of the Employment Act, your employment is terminated as at close business on Tuesday, 25th June 2019.

I have no role in reconciling or tallying the posting made to Card system. In this regard, I encourage you to personally verify whether I was given any access to reconcile or tally the transactions which led to fraudulent activities that was actually done by Mr. Nazeed by using the Card system (BOS). There is no inputter checker process in BOS system. The only way to identify is Card reports generated and report checking falls under Delinquency as per Delinquency work flow. I wasn't aware of the posting by Nazeed to ho his own card or any other card before the fraud was identified, in which he himself posts to his card account. I kindly request you to personally verify card reconciliation process has been conducted accordingly as per delinquency workflow..."
